

CLIMATE RIGHTS OF CHILDREN IN EUROPE

Insights on Participation and Access to Justice from the J&E ENRICH Project

WEBINAR

Date: 25 February 2025, 10:00 - 12:00

Registration link

Zoom link

AGENDA

- 10.00 – 10.05 Welcome, opening remarks, the ENRICH project (Csaba Kiss, Coordinator, Justice & Environment)
- 10.05 – 10.20 Climate rights, climate citizens with special regard to children (Kata Dózsa, Adjunct Professor and Postdoctoral Researcher, Brussels School of Governance - Vrije Universiteit Brussel)
- 10.20 – 10.35 Challenges of access to justice in climate matters for children in Europe, and the way forward (Benoit Van Keirsbilck, Member of the UN Committee on the Rights of the Child, President | CFJ-EN – Child Friendly Justice European Network)
- 10.35 – 10.50 How to ensure meaningful respect for children's human right to be heard and freedom of expression in environmental decision-making processes? (Elisa Morgera, UN Special Rapporteur on Climate Change and Human Rights and professor at University of Strathclyde, Glasgow)
- 10.50 – 11.05 Children's access to environmental justice in Europe: Preliminary findings and recommendations (Gisela Sin Gomiz, Legal Researcher and Access to Justice Coordinator, Child Rights International Network (CRIN))
- 11:05 – 11.20 Child rights in social design (Szilvia Gyurkó, Child Rights Advocacy Advisor, Hinalovon Foundation, ECPAT Hungary)
- 11.20 – 11.35 Findings of the survey of the ENRICH Project of J&E (in Austria, Bulgaria, Croatia, Estonia, Germany, Hungary and Slovenia) on the awareness of stakeholders of environmental and child participatory rights with special regard to the education sector (Csaba Kiss)
- 11:35 – 11:40 Closing remarks (Kata Dózsa)
- 11:40 – 12:00 Discussion (Q&A will be ensured via chat throughout the event)

Funded by the European Union